

Click here

WHY CHOOSE...?

Geography

Sixth Form Options Presentation

WHY CHOOSE THIS SUBJECT?

01

Hundreds of university degrees including; urban geography and architecture, geography and economics, geography and international development, sustainable food production, population and geography, geography and planning

02

Vast range of careers from architecture, urban design, sustainability consultant, climate change consultant, political correspondent, geomorphologist, catastrophe analyst

03

If you are interested in spatial relationships and how human development is affected by physical processes. Why are places different around the world? What can we do about it?

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

Topics

Tectonics, water security, carbon, coasts

Regeneration, globalisation, superpowers, migration and identity

Coursework

20% of your grade is based on coursework you create your own investigation and take part in 4 day fieldwork

Skills

Analysis, interpretation, data and map skills, evaluation, research,
ICT, GIS

Visits

Google Headquarters, London
Docklands, lectures, links with
#blackgeographers

WHAT SKILLS WILL YOU DEVELOP?

A

Data analysis

B

Synthesis, research, evaluation

C

Practical experiments, statistical tests

D

Current news

Jaydene

Jaydene combined her geography A Level and Sciences to go on to UCL to study science with modules in geography, she still uses her A Level skills and knowledge today

OUR SUCCESSES

Ruby

Ruby is currently in year 13 and is applying to study Geography at Russell Group Universities

Fayez

Fayez was always passionate about the human side of geography and went on to study economics at Sussex using his geography knowledge and data skills acquired at A Level.

