YEAR 7 Independent Learning Booklet 2021-2022

Independent Learning Booklets (ILBs)

In Year 7, you are expected to spend a minimum of 30 minutes per week on independent study for each subject (45 minutes for Maths and English).

There are 3 unifying concepts which should be evident in the effective independent study of every subject. These are:

- Content
- Skills
- Feedback

Your ILB will provide you with opportunities to use a variety of Content, Skills, and Feedback techniques.

Your teacher will monitor your completion of this ILB and regularly test you on the content and skills included. You must bring your ILB to lessons.

How to use this ILB

Vocabulary lists are a useful source of information and a good way of checking your work. However, vocabulary lists on their own are not the best tool for learning new words and phrases. You need to actively study content, just like you would when practising your skills. Try using the Quizlet links to test yourself on your content knowledge using the range of modes.

You will also find sentence builders in this ILB. Use the first blank version to translate the phrases into English. The next two can be used for retrieval practice; try to remember and fill in as much French as you can from memory (no notes!). When you really can't remember any more, spend 5 minutes reviewing the original version, then grab your green pen and have another go. For the remaining tricky phrases you still can't remember, make physical flashcards to test yourself more frequently.

Nouns

Gender: Masculine OR Feminine

In French, nouns have gender; they are either masculine OR feminine.

For example, livre is a masculine noun and table is a feminine noun (these are grammatical categories only – obviously, books are not male and tables are not female!).

It is not always easy to know which nouns are masculine and which nouns are feminine. When you learn new vocabulary, you must learn the gender.

There are some helpful general rules:

- Often masculine nouns end in:
  - eau e.g. le château - castle
  - isme e.g. le racisme - racism
  - ment e.g. le médicament - medicine
- Often feminine nouns end in:
  - ade e.g. la promenade - walk
  - ode e.g. la mode - fashion
  - ude e.g. l'habitude - habit
  - once e.g. la confiance - confidence
  - ence e.g. la licence - degree
  - ette e.g. la vedette - film star
  - sion e.g. la télévision - television
  - tion e.g. la natation - swimming
  - ure e.g. la nourriture - food

Singular or plural

- 'Book' is a singular word. > It refers to one book.
- 'Books' is a plural word. > It refers to more than one book.

To make a word plural in French, you normally add s.

livre (book) > livres (books)
fenêtre (window) > fenêtres (windows)

BUT some nouns have different endings when they become plural:

- al → -aux, e.g. un journal, deux journaux – a newspaper, two newspapers.
- eau → -eaux, e.g. un château, deux châteaux – a castle, two castles.
- eu → -eux, e.g. un jeu, deux jeux – a game, two games.
- ou → -oux, e.g. un bijou, deux bijoux – a jewel, two jewels.

Articles

'The' (The definite article)

In French, there are four words for 'the'.

- le – for a singular masculine word, e.g. le livre (the book)
- la – for a singular feminine word, e.g. la table (the schoolbag)
- les – for a plural masculine or feminine word, e.g. les livres (the books)
- l' – for a word starting with a vowel or a h, e.g. l'arbre/l'hôtel (the tree/the hotel)

'A' (The indefinite article)

In French, there are two words for 'a' (or 'an'):

- un – for a singular masculine word, e.g. un appartement (a flat)
- une – for a singular feminine word, e.g. une cuisine (a kitchen)

'Some' (The indefinite article)

In French, we use 'des' to say 'some with plural nouns':

- des – for a plural word, it doesn't matter if it's masculine or feminine:
e.g. des magasins (some shops)
des maisons (some houses)

Articles with opinion phrases

If you are giving your opinion about a noun, you need to include the definite article (even when you wouldn't need to in English)

- J'adore le cinéma. (I love the cinema)
- J'aime la maison. (I like the house)
- Je n'aime pas les châteaux. (I don't like castles)
- J'aime les plages. (I like beaches)
