Key Words

Law: a system of rules which a country uses to regulate the behaviour of its citizens.

Civil Law: When there is a dispute between two people and is usually a personal matter, rather than a crime. E.g. divorce

Criminal Law: When someone breaks a law. E.g. stealing

Barrister: A type of lawyer that defends the person charged with a crime in court.

Jury: is made up of 12 adults, who sit in a crown court and decide whether the accused person is innocent or guilty.

Judges: a person who is in charge of a trial in a court and decide how a guilty person should be punished.

Magistrate's Court: All trials starts in a Magistrate's court. A Magistrate can give out sentences but don't have the same power as a Judge so they only rule over minor offenses. More serious crimes get referred to a Crown court, in front of a Judge.

The Crown Prosecution Service: They advise the police on whether they have enough evidence to prosecute someone. They prepare cases for the court and can decide what charge they think the accused should receive.

Probation Officer: they supervise offenders in the community when they've been released from prison.

Bail: an amount of money that a person who has been accused of a crime pays so that they can be released until their trial.

Custody: being kept in prison, while waiting to go to court for trial.

Caution: a spoken warning given by the police to someone who has broken the law.

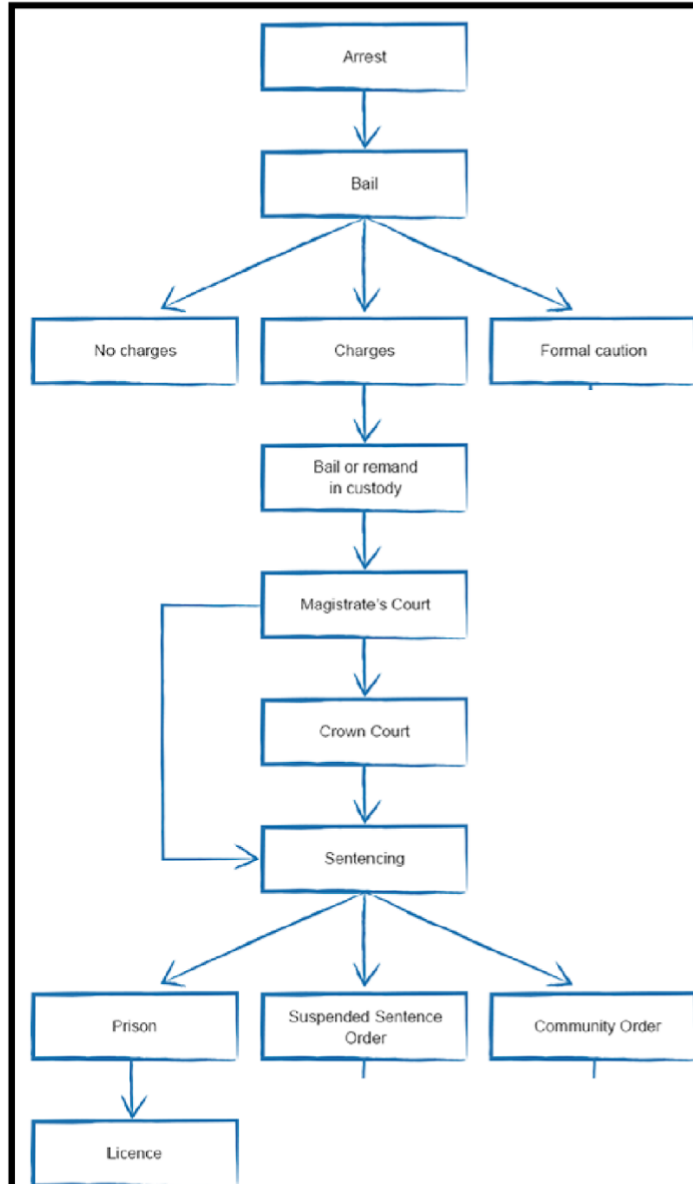

Reoffend: To offend again

Joint Enterprise: a if a persons' presence, actions or knowledge lead to a murder or assault then they can be charged even if they didn't directly do anything.

ASBO (Anti-Social Behaviour Order): A punishment given police to stop continuous bad behaviour e.g. graffitiing.

Manslaughter: the crime of killing a person when the killer did not intend to do it or cannot be responsible for his or her actions.
