Headteachers: Ms. N. Clemenger, Mr. R. Cole

Required as soon as possible: Choir Leader/Vocal Teacher - self employed

The Norwood School is a highly successful specialist Performing and Visual Arts School in South London. We are passionate about the Arts and The Arts are fundamental to our ethos.

We require an experienced choir leader and vocal teacher to provide their services for 6 hours (approx) a week.

You will be an experienced and dynamic choir leader with a track record of rehearsing and directing high quality choir performances and be an experienced vocal teacher. The ability to teach piano is desirable but not essential.

If you would like to have an informal conversation about this opportunity, or would like to arrange a visit to the school, please do not hesitate to contact Joe Francis, Head of Music francis.j@thenorwoodschool.org

For further details, please contact the School Business Manager, edehomo.o@thenorwoodschool.org

Closing date for applications: Friday 1st November 12 noon

The Norwood School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All appointments are made in accordance with safer recruitment practices and the statutory guidance in Keeping Children Safe in Education. Online checks will be carried if you are shortlisted, and any appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS check, satisfactory references and checks regarding suitability to work with children

This Authority is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Norwood School is committed to working towards achieving the Anti Racist School Award. We want to continue to improve race equality within our school while promoting wellbeing for Black, Asian and Ethnic Minority staff, students, parents, carers and those in our community. We are committed to the long term work that is required for institutional change. Join our family and help us inspire every child to choose a remarkable life.
