Job overview

The Norwood School are seeking a Performing Arts Technician. As a specialist Performing and Visual Arts School for 11-19 year olds, we have an excellent reputation in South London and are well over-subscribed at Year 7.

We require a technician to support the setup and running of our shows, to provide technical expertise overseeing a range of specialist equipment and to manage the day-to-day running of the Theatre and other Performing Arts spaces.

The ideal candidate will share our passion for live performance, have a creative mind and hold the necessary skills to set up and operate sound and lighting equipment. They will also need to be flexible - working long days and evenings throughout the course of the school year.

For further details and an application form, please contact Obe Edehomo, the School Business Manager. Informal discussions with the Head of Performing Arts, Martin Blakelock, or visits to the school prior to the application are welcome.

The Norwood School is a fantastic place to work and learn. We are committed to developing teachers who are passionate about their subject and determined to convey this enthusiasm to their students. Opportunities for internal promotion are maximised and encouraged. We want all of our employees to feel included, bringing their passion, creativity and individuality to work. We value all cultures, backgrounds and experiences and we truly believe that diversity drives innovation. Join our family and help us inspire every child to choose a remarkable life.

The Norwood School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All appointments are made in accordance with safer recruitment practices and the statutory guidance in Keeping Children Safe in Education. Online checks will be carried out on all shortlisted candidates, and all appointments are subject to an enhanced DBS check, satisfactory references and checks regarding suitability to work with children.
