PERFORMING ARTS BURSARY

ARE YOU SERIOUS ABOUT A CAREER IN THE PERFORMING ARTS?
DO YOU WANT TO BE A PROFESSIONAL ACTOR, DANCER OR MUSICIAN?

The Norwood School provides an unrivalled programme designed to nurture talent and prepare students from the next step in their professional development.

Students who have completed our sixth form courses have gone on to gain offers from:

- Royal Central School of Speech & Drama
- Guildhall School of Music & Drama
- Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music & Dance
- Rose Bruford College
- E15 Acting School
- alra
- BIMM
- LIPA

Following the success of our Year 7 bursary we are now set to offer a similar programme at sixth form. Students will undertake our in-depth and professional focussed courses where they will gain a BTEC Level 3 Diploma - the equivalent to two full A-Levels. We will also offer a wide range of additional opportunities for sixth form bursary students, including:

- One-to-one technique and audition tutorials.
- Access to State of the art facilities.
- Small teaching groups.
- Funding towards drama school, dance and music conservatoire audition fees.
- Trips to live performances at least once a month, usually with no cost.
- Access to a Student Production Fund in order to put on independent productions.
- Additional Dance Techniques classes in Ballet, Contemporary and Street.
- Access to a professional standard recording studio.
- The opportunity to lead and support clubs and activities with students in KS3 and KS4.
- Financed summer school programmes.
- Access to workshops and opportunities with external companies such as:

WHAT WE’RE LOOKING FOR...

We are looking for young people who are serious about their subject and have a real desire to pursue a career in their chosen field. You will need to be committed, enthusiastic, passionate, resilient, driven and willing to go above and beyond for your career pathway.

Place on the bursary are limited.

If you are interested in finding out more about the sixth form bursary then please contact the school after the 12th October for further details and an application form.
